Subject and Title Index

To Author Entries, March 1962—February 1967

Owing to the fact that the Book Review Digest year does not correspond to the calendar year, running instead from March through February, index entries for January and February of each year refer to the volume dated the previous year, i.e., January and February 1963 will be found in the 1962 Annual. These entries are thus indicated in the Index: (Ja '63) (1962 Annual); (F '63) (1962 Annual).

A reference followed by two dates e.g. (1962, 1963 Annual) indicates a book that has been re-entered, with additional reviews, after its first entry. For such references consult both volumes.
